FILED

William S. Jordan,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Delbert Latta, et al.,

Defendants.

Civil No. C 75-166

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

YOUNG, J:

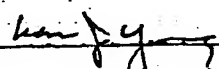

This cause came to be heard upon motion of the defendants for a protective order and to stay discovery. The plaintiff opposes the order, contending that it is unnecessary in the light of plaintiff's counsel's voluntary agreement not to undertake discovery until the defendants have completed filing proposed motions and answers, and his having postponed the taking of depositions previously noticed.

This Court finds that it is unnecessary to grant the requested order. Plaintiff's counsel has given his professional statement that he will not conduct discovery until after the proposed motions are filed. The Court feels that assurance is sufficient and will therefore deny the motion.

Therefore, for the reasons stated herein and for good cause appearing, it is ORDERED that the motion of the defendants for a protective order and to stay discovery should be, and hereby is, denied.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

United States District Judge

Toledo, Ohio.
